4. Substantive Business & Board Action

New Cases — Demolition Orders

- 00:02:52 Case No. 3: 2604 East 16th Street
 - Sponsor / Presenter: City staff / Enforcement Authority.
 - Deliberation Summary: Property owner John Flowers appeared and stated his intent to rehabilitate the structure, noting weather delays and prior issues with broken windows from trespassing. Board members noted the property's long-standing state of disrepair and the impact on neighbors.
 - Item-Specific Public Input: John Flowers (Property Owner) testified that he had purchased wood and moved materials on-site to begin exterior repairs as soon as weather permits.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote (Order affirmed; continued to next month for plans and inspection).

New Cases — Rehabilitation Orders

- 00:13:16 Case No. 9: 517–519 West Howard Street
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Amber Monu (representing New Age Homes).
 - Deliberation Summary: The representative stated that all issues on the historic property had been addressed and completed recently, though city staff and the historic preservation officer noted it still requires a final inspection and proper permits.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote (Order affirmed; continued 30 days to March 12th pending final inspection and permits).
- 00:17:20 Case No. 10: 720 West Howard Street
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Amber Monu (representing New Age Homes).
 - Deliberation Summary: The representative noted that work items had been completed. The board agreed to handle this similarly to Case No. 9 requiring verification via inspection.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote (Order affirmed; continued 30 days to March 12th pending inspection and permits).
- 00:18:54 Case No. 11: 822 West Howard Street
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Angie Boots (Morgan Properties / management company).
 - Deliberation Summary: Management presented an extensive repair estimate to the board. The building contains four units, with the final occupant vacating due to health department issues regarding cleanliness.

- Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote (Order affirmed; continued 30 days for owner approval of estimates, inspection, and permits).
- 00:24:20 Case No. 12: 500 North Walnut Street (Apartment 216)
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Jamie Holland (Property Manager).
 - Deliberation Summary: Addressed tenant complaints regarding lack of heat since September. Manager presented an invoice showing repairs were completed by Summer's Heating and Cooling on February 5th.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote (Order affirmed and released).

New Cases — Walnut Mobile Home Park Properties (Cases 13–24)

- 00:27:57 Cases 13–24: Walnut Mobile Home Park Units
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Chad Whitmore (representing Neighbors North Walnut) and resident Mary for Unit 101 East Hannes Drive.
 - Deliberation Summary: Representatives explained that vacant park structures were sold under contract to Chris Love (Love Rental Properties) to refurbish or demolish, though legal disputes and state violations have stalled progress. Mary (resident of 101 East Hannes Dr.) testified regarding her trailer, stating she uses it for storage, is working with Habitat for Humanity's Restore to clear items, and intends to eventually demo or sell it rather than rent.
 - Action & Vote Disposition:
 - 101 East Hannes Drive (Mary's unit): Approved by Voice Vote (Rehab order affirmed; continued 30 days with updated plan).
 - Remaining Units (13, 15–24): Approved by Voice Vote (Orders affirmed; continued 60 days to April 9th pending legal resolution and maintenance updates).

- 00:45:00 Case No. 56: 426–428 West Howard Street
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Tiara Winners (Property Owner).
 - Deliberation Summary: Owner reported progress on removing a rotting back porch and submitted photographs. She requested administrative enforcement due to a new job, but the board opted for a 60-day continuation to verify further exterior work (doors, siding).
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote (Continued 60 days with required inspection prior to return).
- 00:52:48 Case No. 57: 1022 East Kirby Street
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Tiara Winners (Property Owner).
 - Deliberation Summary: Owner stated focus is currently on the Howard Street property, though the Kirby property is maintained (mowed).

- Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote (Continued 60 days for an updated plan and progress).

Continued Cases — Jackson Mobile Home Park Properties (Cases 25–37)

- 00:55:18 Cases 25–37: Jackson Mobile Home Park Units
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Warick Rex (Property Representative).
 - Deliberation Summary: Representative noted that Trailer 13 (Case 33) and the garage (Case 37) passed inspection. For the remaining units, skirting has been secured, squatters trespassed, and demolition of lots 7 and 16 is planned once weather permits.
 - Action & Vote Disposition:
 - Trailer 13 & Garage (Cases 33 & 37): Approved by Voice Vote (Rehab orders released).
 - Remaining Jackson Park Units: Approved by Voice Vote (Continued 60 days with progress inspection required).

Continued Cases — Demolition Orders

- 00:03:58 Case No. 40: 1924 West 17th Street
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Ashley Vance.
 - Deliberation Summary: Owner/representative explained the home was previously destroyed by arson and she is currently homeless. Due to inability to self-demo, the board moved to place the property on the city's non-compliance list for municipal demolition.
 - Item-Specific Public Input: Ashley Vance requested extra time due to winter, but acknowledged she could not complete the demolition herself.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote (Moved to non-compliance list for city demolition; owner retains lot ownership).
- 00:09:13 Case No. 41: 1900 Block West 17th Street
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Ashley Vance.
 - Deliberation Summary: Involves cleanup of fire debris on an adjacent lot owned by family.
