 - Absent: None explicitly noted.

3. Preliminary & Procedural Business

- Ceremonial Openings: None recorded in the transcript.
- Approval of Minutes: None recorded.

4. Substantive Business & Board Action

Note: The transcript reflects an informational workshop, panel discussion, and community forum rather than a formal municipal legislative agenda with board actions or votes.

- 00:02:46 Impact X Program & Local Microenterprise Introductions
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Mike (Host) and local business owners.
 - Deliberation Summary: Discussion focused on the city-funded, free "Impact X" entrepreneurship class (partnered with Ball State) which has trained over 100 individuals and helped launch roughly 20 local businesses 00:04:54. Three local microbusiness owners who graduated from the program shared their impact:
 - Jasmine Taylor (Young Entrepreneurs Launchpad): A for-profit youth business accelerator that also partners with Muncie Habitat for Humanity. Discussed upcoming youth event "Unity Fest 3" at Canon Commons 00:03:35.
 - Britney Lewis (Grow / Grow-Weiwo): An organization challenging the status quo for women in business, offering professional development and an upcoming annual conference on October 21 at the convention center 00:13:45.
 - Paris Pow (The Pop Shop): Located at 902 East Willard Street, operating under the acronym "Purpose Over Profit" (POP) 00:25:03. Discussed the "YO" (Youth Enrichment Employment Opportunity) summer program keeping youth engaged and employed on neighborhood corners 00:40:01.
 - Item-Specific Public Input: None.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: None (Informational presentation).
- 01:08:48 Community Idea Pitch Exercise
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Mike (Host) and community participants.
 - Deliberation Summary: Attendees practiced the first four core steps of the Impact X curriculum: identifying a community problem, proposing a solution, defining a target audience, and establishing a desired outcome. Participants shared ideas ranging from nature-based "forest bathing" therapy for stress/anxiety (presented by Lori) 00:13:00 to an affordable cooperative salon model (presented by Shan Taylor) 00:13:34, and a historical review of a previous halfway house initiative for men re-entering society (presented by Janetta Presley) 01:19:48.
 - Item-Specific Public Input: Community members actively participated in pitching concepts and discussing the importance of pivoting business models for sustainability.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: None (Educational exercise).
- 01:29:21 Muncie Innovation Challenge Presentation

- Sponsor / Presenter: David Dubo, Director of the SEEDS Program, Ball State College of Architecture and Planning.
- Deliberation Summary: David Dubo introduced the upcoming Muncie Innovation Challenge, scheduled to launch planning in November and culminate in a two-day community summit in March 2026. Inspired by successful multi-sector community initiatives in Iowa, the challenge invites residents to collaborate across government, for-profit business, and nonprofit sectors (tri-sector innovation) to select and resource 2 to 5 transformative communitywide projects.
- Item-Specific Public Input: A community member asked if individuals wanting to start a nonprofit could pitch; Dubo clarified that while the summit focuses on broad multi-organizational transformative projects, specific microenterprises and nonprofits are ideally supported by programs like Mike's Impact X 01:46:16.
- Action & Vote Disposition: None (Informational overview).

5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

The entire meeting functioned as an open citizen forum and workshop. Individual speaking turns during the idea-sharing portion include: - 01:11:45 Lori: Addressed rising stress, anxiety, and screen addiction in the community, pitching "forest bathing" (nature/grounding therapy) as a solution targeting corporate workers and factory employees 01:09:11. - 01:12:32 Shan Taylor: Addressed the high cost and economic inequity of standard beauty salons for local residents and service providers, pitching a cooperative salon model with a pay-what-you-can structure 01:12:35. - 01:18:48 Janetta Presley: Shared her past experience launching a for-profit halfway house in Muncie for older male citizens exiting the prison system experiencing homelessness, emphasizing the importance of following through on community needs 01:19:48.
