Substantive Business & Board Action

00:01:16 Register of Claims (City Claims)

- Sponsor / Presenter: Greg, City Controller.

- Deliberation Summary: The city controller presented the register of claims sent out the previous afternoon. Noted items included utilities, a monthly claim for traffic signals and street lights totaling $40,000, and a payment for police body cameras (Axon software). A board member highlighted a $76.96 credit from Amazon Capital Services for items purchased but never received, praising staff for catching the discrepancy.
- Item-Specific Public Input: None.
- Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by voice vote in the amount of $1,059,323 00:02:47.

00:03:03 Request for Flex Space at The Herat

- Sponsor / Presenter: Bill Currum, Herat Pub and Draft house.
- Deliberation Summary: The applicant requested annual flex space in front of the establishment, taking up two parking spaces to extend outdoor patio dining for the spring and summer season. The board briefly discussed the favorable weather and confirmed it is an annual request.
- Item-Specific Public Input: Bill Currum spoke in favor of the request, noting community demand as the weather turns nice.
- Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by voice vote 00:03:49.

00:04:26 Street Closure Application - Old West End Neighborhood Association / People of Price

- Sponsor / Presenter: Paul Conlin, member of the Old West End Neighborhood Association and People of Price.
- Deliberation Summary: The applicant requested a street closure in front of his residence and Brad King's house for a neighborhood picnic. The street location was chosen to accommodate community members who use wheelchairs and cannot easily maneuver in yards. The applicant confirmed that signs will state "neighborhood picnic" and "no alcohol." The board advised the applicant to have a clear contingency plan if unpermitted alcohol is brought to the event and noted that police officers (specifically Officer Phillips) had been invited to foster positive community relations.
- Item-Specific Public Input: Paul Conlin presented the request and rationale to the board.
- Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by voice vote 00:06:23.

Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

- 00:06:50 Zain Bishop: Addressed the board to inquire whether crack sealing or other pavement preservation measures are scheduled for city streets this year. He noted historical context on past street maintenance programs from 2020, 2021, and 2023, and asked where residents can track this information. City staff (Donna) responded that a complete list has not yet been fully developed as staff are still assessing the roads, and agreed to help the resident follow up on tracking the information.

Administrative Updates & Adjournment

- Staff / Board Announcements: None.
 - Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned by the presiding officer 00:08:27 following the conclusion of business.
