 - Sponsor / Presenter: Kent Frehner, Principal Consultant Addy Rooker, and Lori Seon with Wagner and Schiling Associates.
 - Deliberation Summary: The consultants presented the findings of a comprehensive job classification and compensation study lasting over a year. The study updated all full-time county job descriptions, analyzed Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) compliance (exempt, non-exempt, and excluded statuses), and established a Factor Evaluation System (point-factor system) for public sector jobs categorized into Comet (Computer, Office Machine, Operation, Technician), LTC (Labor, Trades, Crafts), PAT (Professional, Administrative, Technological), Executives, Merit Police, Civilian Police, EMS Police, and Police Investigators. The report detailed internal base salary adjustments to achieve pay equity and external market comparisons using a middle-80% dataset of surrounding and comparable counties and cities. Consultants noted that Delaware County is unique in utilizing a 32.5-hour standard work week compared to 35, 37.5, or 40 hours elsewhere. They also highlighted high turnover and retention struggles in public safety (corrections officers, EMS paramedics/EMTs, e911 dispatchers, and deputy prosecutors) and the impact of impending federal FLSA salary threshold increases taking effect in July and January 2025.
 - Item-Specific Public Input: None recorded.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Information presentation; no formal vote taken on compensation changes, though the consulting firm delivered draft ordinances to adopt job descriptions and a maintenance plan.
