5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

- 00:16:11 Jonathan Chambers (Co-owner, Crew Construction)
 - Addressed real estate transactions and parcel transfers in the McKinley neighborhood controlled by the MRC. Expressed concern regarding whether new developers are being held to the same design standards and review processes previously required of local contractors [00:16:11<U+2013>00:17:35].
 - 00:18:41 Bill Wat (Downtown Street Brewing / Village Construction)
 - Spoke regarding the McKinley District and recent street investments on Columbus Street. Emphasized the need for proper site planning and lot orientation so that new houses face Columbus Street rather than turning their sides to the main corridor [00:18:41<U+2013>00:20:12].
 - 00:20:54 Phil Tevis (315 East Columbus)
 - Thanked the city and MRC for neighborhood development efforts, inquired about the current status of the land transfer process, and questioned whether new city ordinances reducing lot lines and strict design standards are being uniformly applied to site plans along Columbus Street [00:20:54<U+2013>00:23:04].

6. Administrative Updates & Adjournment

- Staff & Board Updates:
 - Mr. Howe (MRC Financial/Projects): Provided updates noting that purchase agreements for the mall are awaiting final signatures, interior demolition has begun at the mall, a signed purchase agreement from D.R. Horton for the Sportsplex is moving toward closing, and property transfers are being coordinated with the East Central Indiana CDC holding company [00:03:04<U+2013>00:04:13].
 - Nate Howard (Muncie Land Bank): Reported that nine properties recently passed along by the MRC have been successfully transferred into the land bank's name; two properties with structures were acquired via online sheriff sale (Old West End and Anthony neighborhoods); immersive learning grants were secured via Ball State University (College of Architecture and Planning); and the land bank has been invited to participate in a national cohort with the Center for Community Progress focusing on housing authority voucher programs for homeownership [00:12:00<U+2013>00:15:38].
 - Adjournment: The meeting was officially adjourned by the presiding officer heading into the next scheduled meeting on April 16th, 2026 [00:29:04<U+2013>00:29:10].
