4. Substantive Business & Board Action

00:00:10 Discussion on Proposed Regional Health Rehabilitation Center

- Sponsor / Presenter: Commissioner Henry, Dustin Fry (BW Construction), and Corey McConnell (Wellpath Recovery Solutions).
- Deliberation Summary:
 - Dustin Fry presented architectural and floor plan renderings for a standalone ~12,000 square-foot, 40-bed mental health and substance abuse treatment facility to be built on approximately 36 available acres at the Delaware County Justice campus.
 - The facility is designed to be voluntary, separate from the jail and courts, and expandable for future bed capacity and programming. Construction is targeted to start late 2023, aiming for completion in the third quarter of 2024.
 - Corey McConnell outlined Wellpath's operational model, emphasizing individualized, evidence-based care, short-term residential stays (20<U+2013>30 days), competency restoration programs, and community reintegration.
 - Commissioners Henry and King emphasized the regional nature of the project, stating that surrounding counties would not be asked for capital construction funds, but rather letters of support and interlocal agreements to allow courts from across the region to utilize the beds as an alternative to incarceration.
- Item-Specific Public Input: None.
- Action & Vote Disposition: Informational presentation and discussion; no formal vote or ordinance action was taken during this special meeting.

5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

(Note: Public participation during this session consisted of intergovernmental dialogue from regional county representatives rather than open citizen floor comments.)

- 00:28:08 Steve Bailey (Adams County): Inquired whether this would be Wellpath Recovery Solutions' first facility in Indiana, which was confirmed by Corey McConnell.
- 00:37:15 Jeff Pastor (Wayne County): Applaud the initiative and shared background information regarding Wayne County's pre-existing 64-bed 28-day voluntary residential treatment facility and its long-term navigation of Medicaid/Medicare approvals.

6. Administrative Updates & Adjournment

- Staff / Board Announcements: Commissioners noted that a draft letter of support would be circulated to surrounding county commissioners for review within the week, aligning with upcoming state biennial budget provisions starting July 1.

- Adjournment: A motion to recess the meeting was made, seconded, and approved by voice vote. Meeting recessed at timestamp 00:34:48 / end of transcript.
