- 00:38:58 Interlocal Agreement: Street-Sweeping Services with Town of Gaston

- Sponsor / Presenter: County Staff.
 - Deliberation Summary: An interlocal agreement under which the county will provide street-sweeping services to the Town of Gaston twice a year, in exchange for Gaston purchasing brushes for the street sweeper.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote.

5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

- 00:42:49 James (Resident / Local Official): Addressed the history of county ambulance services dating back to the 1980s, court precedents involving county EMS authority, retention issues with paramedics, and expressed concerns regarding city-county jurisdictional overlaps regarding emergency medical dispatching and services.
 - 00:47:11 Edek Bellman (Resident): Discussed emergency response experiences involving family members, praised individual firefighters and paramedics, but raised strong concerns over jurisdictional friction, dispatch protocols, and the potential risks of alternate ambulance providers ("snatch-and-grab") operating within the county/city limits. Urged the commissioners to explore legal actions if necessary to protect county EMS jurisdiction.
 - 00:51:22 Unidentified Resident / Former Official: Spoke on the historical cooperation in building the county's public safety communication system, past interlocal agreements, and encouraged the commissioners to utilize legal avenues to resolve ongoing EMS service disputes with the city administration.
