5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

(Note: General public comments submitted electronically were addressed by staff during the meeting rather than an open floor period. Specific departmental and administrative reports included the following presentations:)

- 00:00:38 Jeannie Bane (Administrator, Delaware County Health Department): Reported that local COVID-19 cases rose from 51 to 65. Addressed violation letters mailed to local businesses, noting that while businesses may be exempt under the governor's order, non-essential activities occurring within them are highlighting compliance challenges.
- 00:04:17 Jason Rogers (Director, Delaware County Emergency Management Agency): Provided updates on the Indiana Public Assistance program (with the application deadline extended to April 30th), ISDH medical provider/public call centers, and ongoing multi-agency task force efforts regarding resources for the unhoused population.
- 00:11:03 Brad Bookout (Economic Development Director): Detailed outreach to over 60 local businesses, highlighted federal and state tax deadline extensions (pushed to July 15th/October 15th), and outlined SBA disaster assistance and Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loans.
- 00:16:06 Ted Baker (Innovation Connector): Reported assisting 70 businesses and nonprofits over the prior 10 days with crisis coaching and navigating SBA loan applications free of charge.

6. Administrative Updates & Adjournment

- Staff / Board Announcements:

- Commissioners and health officials strongly urged citizens to cancel large family gatherings and Easter egg hunts over the weekend to prevent viral spread.
- Clarified that property tax extensions are under the purview of state government, not local commissioners.
- Expressed condolences regarding the line-of-duty passing of IND Officer Brianna Leffler.
- Mark Slusher (Point Creative) explained that technical difficulties with Zoom streaming prevented broadcasting live to non-personal Facebook pages (such as the county's page), but assured an unedited recording would be uploaded immediately following the meeting.
- Adjournment: A motion and second to recess were called. Passed Unanimously via roll call vote (King: Yes, Regan: Yes, Henry: Yes). Meeting adjourned with holiday well-wishes.
