Community Meeting Report: Montrose Development Commission

Meeting Date: May 21, 2024

1. Meeting Identification & Attendance

- Call to Order & Spoken Details: Presiding officer called the meeting of the Montrose Development Commission to order on the morning of May 21, 2024.
- Attendance:
 - Present: Bishop, Prabella, Wagley, Rollins, and Lowe.
 - Absent: Miller.
 - Presiding Officer: Lowe (implied by leadership of roll call and agenda items).

2. Preliminary & Procedural Business

- Ceremonial Openings: None noted in the transcript.
- Approval of Agenda: Reviewed with a note that there were no actionable items for the facade grant. Approved by Voice Vote.
- Approval of Minutes: Motion made to accept previous meeting memoranda (with the date corrected at the top). Approved by Voice Vote.

3. Substantive Business & Board Action

- 00:01:36 Claims Review
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Matt Wagley, Deputy Controller.
 - Deliberation Summary: Wagley presented claims sent out the previous afternoon. The largest claim was for $124,331.70 to Flatland Resources for the Muncie sign on the point, followed by a second-highest claim of $14,735.73 to Flatland Resources for retainage.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote.
- 00:03:22 City Reports & Updates
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Jeff (City Administration).
 - Deliberation Summary: Provided updates on several ongoing projects:
 - The Allen: Affordable housing development on Kilgore Avenue completed with a ribbon cutting two days ago; offers 1-, 2-, and 3-bedroom units with amenities, with 3-bedroom/2-bath units starting at $975/month (addressing 120 units of the city's 2,000+ affordable housing unit deficit).
 - Mason Ridge: 126-home subdivision by D.R. Horton under construction following a groundbreaking a couple of weeks ago.
 - The Point: Economic development agreement is fully executed; layout discussions focus on parking for 50<U+2013>60 market-rate apartments and ground-floor commercial space (tenant not yet finalized).
 - Muncie Mall: Phase 1 demolition expected to begin imminently starting with Sears and JCPenney structures; Phase 2 timeline not established pending tenant relocations.
 - McKinley & Whitely: Construction permits issued for McKinley; ongoing discussions regarding potential home building in the Whitely neighborhood.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Informational report; no formal board vote taken.
- 00:13:32 Notification of Tax Increment Use
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Mentioned regarding Bob Swintz (absent).
 - Deliberation Summary: Board noted that statutory notifications regarding the position on bonds and active TIFs must be sent to the assessor by July 1. Because it is a notification rather than a policy change, no resolution was required.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Informational item; no vote required.
- 00:14:20 IEDC Training Insights
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Amber Green.
 - Deliberation Summary: Green reported on attending the International Economic Development Council (IEDC) Intro Course Tier One economic development program. She highlighted a national shift from industrial-only focus to the "creative economy," talent mobility, quality of place, and comprehensive housing ladders (standard/temp, rental, starter ownership, move-up, and downsizing/boomer housing).
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Informational report; no board action taken.
- 00:30:00 Muncie Land Bank Update

- Sponsor / Presenter: Nate Howard, Muncie Land Bank.
 - Deliberation Summary: Howard reported on recent property dispositions, including the sale of 2116 North New York and a pass-through agreement for 218 East 6th Street for family rehabs. He announced an upcoming First Friday meeting on June 5th covering a 10-year tax sale study, industry partnerships for small business incubation, and an upcoming strategic planning process led by the Cuyahoga Land Bank. Howard raised concerns regarding a lack of coordination and transparency in acquiring tax sale properties and city-owned lots (such as 507 South Pratt) compared to the support given to other entities.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Informational report; no formal board action taken.

4. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

(No members of the public stepped forward during the official general public comment period at timestamp 00:43:18, though board member comments followed.)

5. Administrative Updates & Adjournment

- Staff / Board Announcements: Commissioners discussed historical and ongoing neighborhood revitalization efforts, specifically highlighting the success of land bank projects in the Old West End.
 - Adjournment: A motion to adjourn was made and seconded, closing the meeting by voice vote.
