4. Substantive Business & Board Action

- 00:05:16 Administrative Reports & Summer Updates
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Dr. Reynolds and Mr. Grim.

- Deliberation Summary: Dr. Reynolds reported on the recent commencement ceremony celebrating 318 graduates, who earned over 4,200 dual credits (saving roughly $830,000 in Ivy Tech tuition), 22 one-year degrees, 37 associate degrees, and $11.4 million in scholarship offers. Five students earned the Next Generation Hoosier Educators Scholarship. Additional updates covered Muncie Central track athlete Emmanuel Taylor placing 6th in the state for the discus throw, and the launch of summer school programs, I-READ 3 literacy camps, Camp Adventure (in partnership with Ball State University), summer band, and online high school courses. Mr. Grim provided detailed enrollment and progress metrics for elementary literacy camps and secondary summer academies.
 - Item-Specific Public Input: None.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Informational report; no formal board vote required.
- 00:17:56 Consent Agenda, Leadership Pipeline, and Camp Adventure Property Acquisition
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Presiding Officer Mr. Williams and administrative staff.
 - Deliberation Summary: The board reviewed informational consent items, including a new partnership with Ball State University's Teachers College offering MCS faculty 50% off a 36-credit Master's in Educational Leadership / Principal's License program (paired with proposed retention bonuses of $1,500 at year 3 and $3,000 at year 5). Additionally, the board reviewed the formal transfer of ownership of the 40-acre Camp Adventure property from the Optimus Club (which has owned it for nearly 80 years and leased it to MCS since 1994) to Muncie Community Schools, contingent on board ratification and maintaining the property for youth camp use with a 20-year countywide scholarship commitment. The board also introduced and welcomed several newly hired and transferring staff members, including JD Craft (Principal at Southside Middle School), elementary teachers, behavior coaches, and recognized retiring staff member Coach Ronnie How after 29 years at East Washington Academy.
 - Item-Specific Public Input: None.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote.
- 00:34:09 Strategic Planning 5-Year Review & Future Iteration
 - Sponsor / Presenter: Dr. Reynolds and Board Members.
 - Deliberation Summary: The board conducted an extensive review of the district's 5-year strategic plan (originally adopted in 2020) and discussed the framework for the upcoming 3-year iteration leading up to the July 15th approval vote. Discussions spanned all five strategic pillars: High-Quality Pre-K (noting enrollment growth to 246 students, voucher management challenges, and impending legislative funding caps under SB1); Teacher Recruitment, Development, and Retention (highlighting the transition to the NIET evaluation rubric and competitive compensation); Student-Centered Teaching & Learning (science of reading rollout, middle school math support, and high school freshman academy updates); Student Success &

Resiliency Resources (MTSS frameworks and Playworks expansion); and Family & Community Engagement (ParentSquare implementation, Meridian health clinics, and proposed student-led parent-teacher conferences).

- Item-Specific Public Input: None.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: Informational work session and discussion; final plan scheduled for board approval on July 15th.
