00:02:06 2025 Board of Finance Annual Investment & Financial Report

- Sponsor / Presenter: Treasurer Polk.
- Deliberation Summary:
 - Treasurer Polk presented the annual investment and fund balance report for fiscal year 2025.
 - Total investment revenue across interest-bearing accounts reached approximately $3.188 million (or roughly $3.06 million when excluding ARP funds).
 - The primary investment vehicle with Star Financial Bank grew from an opening balance of approximately $8.656 million to over $9 million ($9,003,683.08), generating roughly $369,665.08 in interest last year.
 - To offset anticipated Federal Reserve interest rate reductions, the treasurer's office optimized tax collection deposits into interest-bearing accounts earlier and shifted funds into higher-yielding institutions like United Fidelity in Evansville (earning 4.71%). Over the past three years, total interest generated surpassed $10.22 million.
 - Board members reviewed specific fund metrics, including:
 - County General Fund ending balance at $11,225,608.2 (noting departmental reversions/savings).
 - Rainy Day Fund (00:08:10) at $615,284.81.
 - Tax Sales Surplus (00:10:17) at $5,443,137.53.
 - Drainage Maintenance Fund (00:10:32) starting at $946,247.47 and ending at $1,181,939.66.
 - Healthcare Fund (00:11:02, Fund 4701) showing expenditures of $7,666,968.85 across 419 employees (averaging roughly $18,300 per employee annually, exclusive of clinic and prescription costs).
 - County Payroll (00:12:21, Fund 5100) totaling $28,634,190.15 for the year.
 - Drug Court Grant (00:12:52, Fund 9321) reflecting a temporary negative balance of $8,635.22 due to the differing fiscal year cycle of the grant (July to June), which is permitted under accounting rules.
 - American Rescue Plan (ARP) funds (00:13:48, Funds 8950/8951) showing roughly $3.25 million available including accumulated interest.
 - Mental Health Facility Reimbursement grant (00:14:53, Fund 9230) showing a remaining balance of $668,536.20.

- Treasurer Polk also highlighted pending legislation, Senate Bill 289, which recently advanced through the Senate Insurance and Financial Institutions Committee and would permit local governments greater flexibility to utilize out-of-county banks to maximize interest rates.
 - Item-Specific Public Input: None.
 - Action & Vote Disposition: The annual financial report was received and acknowledged by the board. (No formal roll call vote recorded; report accepted).
