(ECICDC) to achieve more efficient response times and smoother processes.

Existing properties held by the old entity will be transferred over.

- Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote (00:32:38).

5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

- 00:40:33 Rick Yanser (Newsman, author): Addressed the commission expressing concern that the city remains overly focused on housing development in 2026 rather than prioritizing job creation and industrial business growth. He noted concerns regarding manufacturing investments, local industry relocation, the use of non-union/undocumented labor on housing projects, and downtown worker residency requirements.

6. Administrative Updates & Adjournment

- Staff / Board Announcements & Updates:
 - Gateway & Multi-Use Building: Gateway sign fabrication is nearing completion for installation within a couple of weeks; three developers are actively reviewing the multi-use building project with an additional prospective anchor tenant engaged.
 - Muny Mall Development: Environmental remediation and interior demolition are nearing completion, though outside demolition is temporarily delayed due to complex engineering requirements regarding underlying water and gas lines.
 - Subdivisions & Housing: Dr. Horton was approved for a 126 single-family home subdivision on the northwest side (Jackson Morrison project); terms are being finalized for a 200<U+2013>250 home east side project and a 42-home premier housing project on Rian Road. Store property lots are awaiting a LOMAR flood zone designation clearance before building resumes.
 - Facade Grant Program: Four applications remain on the table awaiting supplemental information; online applications are being streamlined via the IT department.
 - Muny Land Bank (Zach Golian): Reported that the land bank is voting on the sale of its final two available public properties, marked its 100th property sold (2123 South Jefferson), noted rehab progress on other properties, highlighted ongoing Ball State architecture/planning partnerships, and mentioned land bank legislation (House Bill 1411).
- Adjournment: Official adjournment by the presiding officer to the February meeting (00:50:26).
