4. Substantive Business & Board Action

00:01:23 New Business: Review and Discussion of Transparency Portal

- Sponsor / Presenter: Chip Taylor (Commission Member).
- Deliberation Summary: Chip Taylor provided a comprehensive overview and distributed a handout regarding Section 43.02 of the code of ethics, which charges the commission with overseeing the public transparency portal. The portal is accessible via the Muncie Ethics Commission page on the city website and contains eight specific folders corresponding to ordinance requirements: (1) Code of ethics and procedures, (2) Commission member lists and historical terms, (3) State Board of Accounts conflict of interest forms, (4) Advisory opinions, (5) Public complaint documents, (6) Annual reports, (7) Compliance documentation with training and relative contract disclosures, and (8) Public purchase documents of $5,000 or more.
- The commission discussed bridging the gap between current portal contents (primarily focusing on executed or pending contracts approved by the Board of Public Works) and additional statutory requirements, such as including requests for proposals (RFPs), requests for qualifications (RFQs), invitations to quote, and final bid submissions.
- Item-Specific Public Input: None.
- Action & Vote Disposition: Informational review and discussion; no formal roll call vote taken. Commission members agreed to follow up with recording secretary Lacy Jones to explore incorporating more comprehensive bid and proposal packet documentation moving forward.
