5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

- 00:01:17 William Frederick: Addressed the board regarding a sewer bill received for 3715 South Mock Avenue. Stated that he purchased the property in 2017 to rehab it, that the property has no active sewer or water usage (running on a broken well system with no power or plumbing functionality), and that the structure is used for storage/woodwork rather than habitation. Board leadership instructed Mr. Frederick to stay after the meeting for a direct follow-rif discussion regarding his billing concerns.

6. Administrative Updates & Adjournment

- Staff / Board Announcements:
 - Traffic / Construction: Rick Conrad announced that work to close CSO 13 will begin next week, causing lane restrictions on the eastbound lane of White River Boulevard near South College. Traffic will shift to the middle turn lane; westbound traffic is unaffected. Work is expected to conclude by the end of next week.
 - Leaf Pickup: Leaf season begins November 6, with pickups on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Leaves must be bagged (paper bags preferred, plastic bags accepted but require opening/emptying).
 - Weather Advisory: Anticipated rain requires residents to monitor storm drains to prevent clogging.
 - Trunk or Treat: An indoor Trunk or Treat event will be held at the sanitation building on Thursday from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
 - Next Meeting: Scheduled for Wednesday, November 12, 2024, at 11:30 a.m. in the City Hall Auditorium.
- Adjournment: The meeting was officially adjourned following a motion by David and a second by Adam.
