5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

- 00:14:22 Carolyn Van (Retired Professor, Ball State University & Audubon Society Partner)
 - Key Concerns: Presented a $60,800 community foundation grant proposal aimed at installing renewable energy systems across five local nonprofits (Better Way, Muncie Mission, YWCA, Boys and Girls Club) and a county-owned building at the fairgrounds (Heartland Hall). Requested county permission to install solar panels at the fairgrounds and asked for financial support of $10,000 to $15,000.
- 00:19:12 Gary Russell (Development Marketing Director, YWCA)
 - Key Concerns: Voiced support for the solar water heater installation to decrease operational costs and redirect funds toward program expansion for women and children.
- 00:20:23 Craig Baldwin (Executive Director, Muncie Mission)
 - Key Concerns: Spoke in favor of the solar hot water project, noting high hot water demand for emergency shelter and long-term addiction recovery residents.
- 00:22:28 Representative from "Better Way"
 - Key Concerns: Supported the solar initiative to reduce operating costs for the domestic violence and sexual assault shelter serving roughly 150 people annually.

(Note on Board Action during Forum: Following the public comments, a commissioner made a motion to donate $10,000 from non-profit/employee funds to the solar project, contingent upon the grant being successfully awarded to the applicants).
