5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

- 00:28:37 Sheriff Ray Dudley / Merit Deputies Bargaining Unit Representative:
 - Addressed the council regarding a grievance filed by the union because two deputies (along with three jail officers and two 911 personnel) were denied longevity pay. Discussed whether collective bargaining agreements supersede the county's 2011 ordinance discontinuing longevity for new hires.
- 00:31:38 Curtis [Last Name Inaudible], Investigator / Bill 1 Cashier's Office:
 - Spoke regarding email communications with County Attorney John Brooke, arguing that existing union contracts signed in 2010 legally supersede the 2011 council ordinance regarding longevity pay for eligible employees.
- 00:34:36 Mr. Hughes (County Attorney Representative / Counsel):
 - Clarified legal discussions held with County Attorney John Brooke regarding the intent of the ordinance versus active contracts, noting that while active contracts must be honored, the ordinance applies to future contracts. After extensive debate between the council, sheriff, and legal counsel regarding paperwork and formal requests, the longevity funding item was deferred to the January agenda 00:53:08.

6. Administrative Updates & Adjournment

- Staff / Board Announcements:
 - State Board of Accounts / EDIT Fund: Mr. Keaton announced he received word from Mr. Vinson (State Board of Accounts) confirming that borrowing money from the EDIT fund rather than a commercial bank next year is permissible, subject to commissioner approval and a plan wording update, which could save $35,000<U+2013>$40,000 annually in interest 01:00:55.
 - Highway Workers' Compensation: Brief administrative discussion regarding highway fund worker's compensation shortfalls and incoming reimbursement checks 01:03:02.
 - Clerk's Office Scanning Update: The clerk's office reported scanning approximately 8,200 court files over the previous three and a half months, successfully digitizing records and clearing out physical file cabinets 01:07:26.
 - Election Equipment Update: MicroVote machine upgrades and payment installments were discussed, noting an expected surplus return of approximately $13,000 in January 01:07:56.
- Adjournment:
 - The meeting was adjourned by voice vote 01:09:58.
