1. Pre-Meeting Hearings & Committee Work Sessions

- Session Type & Topic: Statutory Public Hearings 00:01:30
 - Hearing 1: Petition for the vacation of streets and alleyways platted in the Pleasant Hill and offerings addition in Oakville, Monroe Township, Delaware County 00:01:34.
 - Hearing 2: Transfer of deeds to local tax-exempt entities 00:06:14.
- Summary of Discussion:
 - First Hearing: Rich Lee (representing property owner Orwell Lindell) presented a request to vacate platted streets and alleys dating back approximately 100 years that were never developed 00:02:02. He explained that the property, located at 12720 South Blue Jay Drive, is currently hindered because lenders will not issue loans on the split plots without them being combined into a single parcel [00:3:48]. Potential buyers spoke in favor, asking for expedited action to avoid increasing interest rates and extra lending fees 00:05:01. The board noted that certified mail green return cards had not yet been fully returned to the auditor's office 00:05:25. The public hearing was closed via roll call vote 00:05:50.
 - Second Hearing: Staff introduced requests from three organizations for property deed transfers: East Central Indiana Regional Planning District, Muncie Mission, and Muncie Culture Council 00:06:21. Frank Baldwin spoke on behalf of Muncie Mission regarding a vacant lot at 1430 South Franklin Street, detailing community services provided by the Muncie Hub, Better Way, YWCA, and Meridian Health Services, and noting plans to expand services 00:07:07. Aaron Williams, Executive Director of the Muncie Culture Council, and resident Rebecca Anna spoke in favor of acquiring 610 West Jackson Street (adjacent to their newly acquired property at 600 West Jackson) to clean up a long-neglected, squatter-ridden building and transform it into an arts and education garden [00:10:06, 00:13:11].
