 - Sponsor / Presenter: Councilman Polk.
 - Deliberation Summary: Final review and adoption of the overarching 2023 municipal budget. Councilman Clark raised deep concerns prior to the vote, arguing that the budget underfunds basic local government responsibilities, relies heavily on bare-minimum departmental funding, offers a 2% raise that fails to keep pace with 8% inflation, and has zero dollars appropriated to the general fund from EDIT

(Economic Development Income Tax) compared to historical averages of $1.4 million.

- Item-Specific Public Input: None during this specific item.
- Action & Vote Disposition: Passed 7-2 by roll call vote. (Ayes: Clark, Overby, Polk, Ingram, Selby, Green, Garrett; Nays: Dishman, President Robinson).

(Note: Departmental budget review sessions for Personnel, Human Rights Commission, City Court, City Clerk, City Council, and Beach Grove Cemetery occurred between 00:07:36 and 00:23:55 as part of the working agenda, but involved no formal board actions or votes.)

5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum - 00:27:24 Rick Yanser (Resident, former newsman/author) addressed the council regarding the 2023 budget. He emphasized keeping taxes low while ensuring public employees are properly compensated to prevent staffing shortages. He also raised concerns regarding reported missing money in the park fund (suggesting a potential state or federal investigation) and urged the council to maintain strict oversight of the administration to protect taxpayers.

6. Administrative Updates & Adjournment - Staff / Board Announcements: Discussion regarding future training needs for newly elected or caucused council members through the Association of Indiana Municipalities (AIM) for upcoming budget cycles. - Adjournment: The meeting was officially adjourned by voice vote following a motion by Councilman Ingram and a second by Councilman Polk.
