4. Substantive Business & Board Action

Claims Review and Approval

- Item Identifier & Title: 00:01:06 Weekly Claims Approval
- Sponsor / Presenter: City staff / Administration
- Deliberation Summary: Staff presented the weekly claims listing, highlighting specific disbursements:
 - $47,059.50 paid to the Delaware County Auditor for an interlocal agreement with the county prosecutor.
 - $15,677 paid to Star Bank for monthly police vehicle payments.
 - $27,000 paid to Pridemark Construction for basement renovations.
 - Health claims, utilities, and various back-dated TUF (Transportation Utility Fee) concession payments were also noted. Board members inquired about budget line-item adjustments nearing the end of the year and noted that TUF operations finished in the black.
- Item-Specific Public Input: None.
- Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote 00:04:51.

Unfinished Business: Noise Exemption Form Evaluation

- Item Identifier & Title: 00:05:02 Evaluation of Noise Exemption Policy and Ordinances
- Sponsor / Presenter: Board of Works / Deputy Police Chief Chris Deegan
- Deliberation Summary: The board discussed ongoing concerns regarding noise exemption permits, particularly surrounding student and fraternity parties near Ball State University. Deputy Police Chief Chris Deegan noted that approved exemptions often attract crowds of up to 1,000 people, causing safety, traffic, and enforcement challenges, especially when parties extend past midnight (sometimes until 2:30 AM). The board and police department agreed to collaborate on drafting procedural improvements including shortening allowed exemption hours (e.g., capping noise exemptions at midnight), requiring a neighborhood impact map, increasing notice requirements (3 to 4 weeks), and coordinating closer reviews with the police and fire departments.
- Item-Specific Public Input:
 - 00:05:32 Steve Ham (804 West Beechwood Avenue) spoke regarding noise exemptions near Fraternity Row, questioning the criteria used for permits, citing issues with underage drinking and large crowds exceeding building capacities, and expressing frustration over noise lasting until 2:30 AM.
- Action & Vote Disposition: No formal vote taken; the board directed the police department and legal team to draft proposed procedural and policy modifications for future review.

New Business: Temporary Parking Request (901 North Briar)

- Item Identifier & Title: 00:24:09 Temporary Parking Request for 901 North Briar
- Sponsor / Presenter: Bohannon family (submitted via mail) / Board members
- Deliberation Summary: The board reviewed a temporary parking request for 901 North Briar from 4:00 PM to 10:00 PM for an economic department drop-in social gathering in a normally restricted parking area.
- Item-Specific Public Input: None.
- Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote 00:24:42.

New Business: Commercial Property Easement Inquiry

- Item Identifier & Title: 00:25:26 Property Easement Request <U+2013> Malice McDaniel
- Sponsor / Presenter: Malice McDaniel
- Deliberation Summary: Commercial property owner Malice McDaniel requested a city easement or right-of-way access at the rear of her building to allow for deliveries, van loading/unloading, and lawn maintenance. City Engineer Adam and the board explained that the city cannot issue or grant easements over private property that the city does not own. The board advised McDaniel to contact the neighboring private property owner directly to negotiate access or purchase an easement.
- Item-Specific Public Input:
 - 00:24:48 Malice McDaniel described the layout limitations of her commercial property, the lack of rear access following the demolition of an adjacent old house, and difficulties with property maintenance and utility locates.
- Action & Vote Disposition: No action taken (outside the authority of the board).

New Business: Contract Extension for Child Crimes Investigator

- Item Identifier & Title: 00:34:06 6-Month Contract Renewal for Linda Cook (Child Crimes Unit Investigator)
- Sponsor / Presenter: Deputy Police Chief Chris Deegan
- Deliberation Summary: Deputy Chief Deegan requested a six-month contract renewal for Linda Cook, a retired veteran police officer working as a subcontractor/investigator in the Child Crimes Unit due to ongoing department staffing shortages. Funds were confirmed available.
- Item-Specific Public Input: None.
- Action & Vote Disposition: Approved by Voice Vote 00:35:38.

5. Open Public Comment / Citizen Forum

- 00:36:06 Stacey Marlow (Just Jeepin, Delaware County) appeared before the board to request permission to host a Christmas parade on December 10, running from 6:00 PM to 7:00 PM, starting at Southway Plaza, moving down Madison Street, curving around Martin Luther King, and ending at the Muncie Mall. She noted that required parade permit forms and signatures from the police and fire chiefs had already been secured. The board acknowledged the request and noted it would be formally placed on the agenda for final approval at the next meeting.

6. Administrative Updates & Adjournment

- Staff / Board Announcements: The board noted upcoming agenda items for the subsequent week, including formal action on the Christmas parade permit.
 - Adjournment: The meeting concluded following the public comment period at 00:38:01.
